

Election 2019

Where do the Major Parties stand on Workplace Relations?

Liberal Party

Labor Party

"Small and family businesses already know that our government is supporting them like none before"

Scott Morrison

"The next election will be a referendum on wages"

Bill Shorten

5 KEY PLEDGES

Let the Fair Work Commission set the minimum wage increase

5 KEY PLEDGES

Introduce a 'living wage' up to 60% of Australia's median income

Establish the Australian Business Growth Fund

Reverse recent Penalty Rate reductions

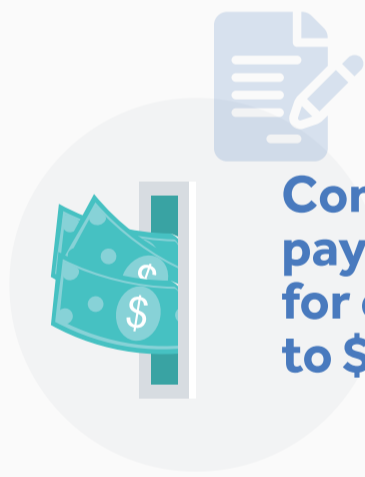

Deliver its Skills for Today Package, supporting the VET sector

Enshrine the Casual Conversion clause into Law

Commit to 20 day payment terms for contracts up to $1 million

Labour Hire workers to receive the same pay and conditions as direct employees

Maintain the new Casual Loading Offset regulation

Reduce the Gender Pay Gap

Where do they agree?

Increase the Instant Asset Write Off Threshold to $30,000

Reduce the corporate rate to 25%

Adopt the recommendations of the Migrant Workers' Taskforce

Learn More

Need a full breakdown of the 2019 Election Promises? Visit the EmploySure website for a detailed analysis.